

2020 Taipei International Dragon Boat Championships

- Precautions for Dealing with Current COVID-19 Outbreak

The 2020 Taipei International Dragon Boat Championships is scheduled to be held from June 25 to June 27, 2020 in the Dajia section of the Keelung River under the Dazhi Bridge in Taipei. The online registration system for this event is scheduled to open from 10:00 am. on April 1st, 2020 and close at 12 pm on April 12th or till the registration is full.

In response to the latest development of the COVID-19 outbreak, the Department of Sports reserves the right to the cancelation of the event in accordance with Article 19 of the Regulations. It is scheduled to announce its decision on June 1st, 2020 as to whether the event will continue or not and various precautions for epidemic prevention. Kindly remind all registered teams, please follow up with the event official website for updated information.

In case of the suspension or cancelation of the event due to force majeure factors such as the COVID-19 outbreak, or if any team is affected by the outbreak in cases such as a member is unable to participate due to the epidemic, the Organizer will adopt the following precautions:

1. It is recommended that each team fills up the number of crew members at the time of registration (32 for standard size dragon boat; 22 for small dragon boat). In case of any member's participation is affected by the outbreak, the team still has enough number of crew members to participate.

2. If the number of affected crew members jeopardize the team's participation in the competition due to the COVID-19 outbreak, please submit the following documents:

(1) Declaration statement

(2) Documents of proof from the hospital or public authorities

The aforementioned document need to be sent (delivered) to the Department of Sports,

Taipei City Government (No. 10, Section 4, Nanjing East Road, Songshan District, Taipei City, 10553) before July 10th, 2020. The application fees will not be refunded after the deadline.

3. The Organizer will refund the team's application fees in full (NTD 2000) to the account provided by the registered team (the account information provided to receive the subsidy in the registration system) if the decision of cancelation is announced or the team's withdraw application is through before the dateline.

Thank you for your support of the "Taipei International Dragon Boat Championships". However, your health and safety is our priority especially during this time of COVID-19 outbreak. We apologize for any inconvenience caused. If there is any further precautions or updated information in the future, the Organizer will announce it as soon as possible in the latest news section on the event's official website.
